"Fortunate Ones are fully contemporary, yet when you watch them you can't help but feel you're watching the 'next in line' of great Newfoundland entertainers." – Tom Power, CBC Radio

"Fortunate Ones are a rare gem. Two voices singing as one." – Alan Doyle, Great Big Sea

FORTUNATE ONES is a Canadian Folk/Pop duo of singer/guitarist Andrew James O'Brien and singer/pianist/accordion player Catherine Allan – endearing audiences with wide-eyed energy, pragmatic optimism, and an earnest mission for connection.

Fortunate Ones' debut album THE BLISS soars - spinning memorable, singable choruses about things we all need to remember. Produced by multi award winning East coast producer Daniel Ledwell, the tracks boast inventive, rich layers and rhythms, beneath the duo's distinct, emotive vocals. The album features guest appearances by East Coast favorites Jenn Grant, Don Brownrigg, and Kinley Dowling. Two singles from the album, The Bliss & Lay Me Down hit #1 on CBC Radio 2 and Fortunate Ones were selected for the inaugural Allan Slaight JUNO Master Class program, have received 3 Canadian Folk Music Award nominations and 7 Music Newfoundland & Labrador Award nominations.

The Bliss was released on JUNO award winning songwriter Rose Cousins' label Old Farm Pony Records in February, 2015.
